

10-20 System of Lead Placements

The 10-20 System of lead (electrode) placement is a method used to describe the location of scalp electrodes. This ensures consistency between practitioners on lead placements.

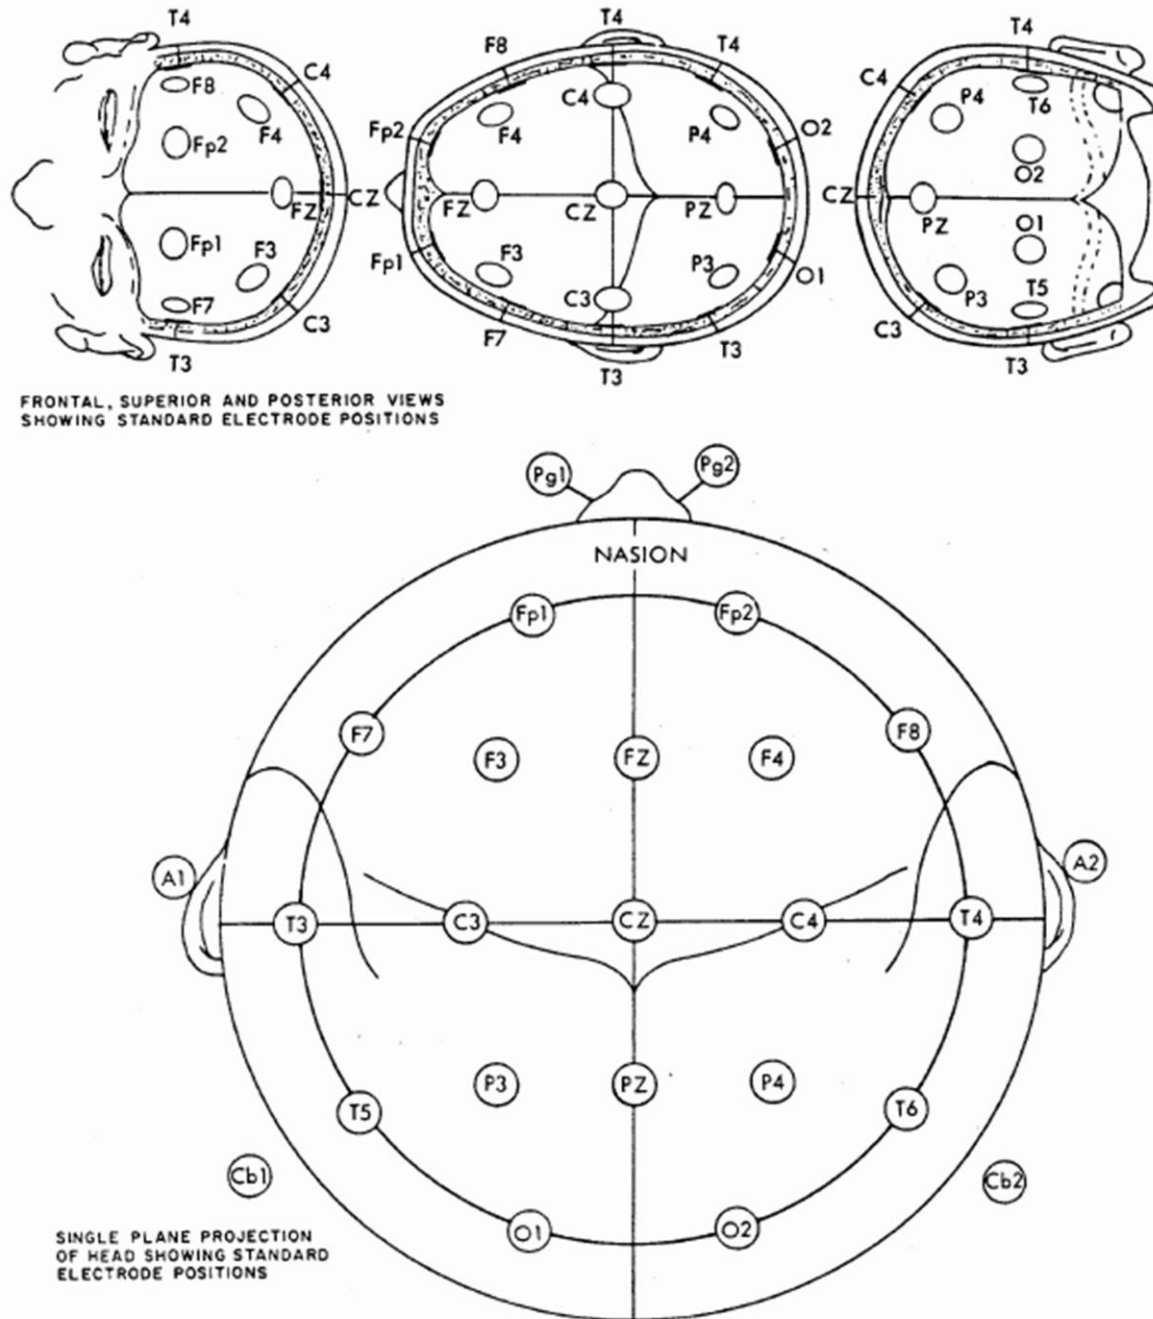

Figure 14. 10-20 Electrode Placement System.